

UNITED NATIONS

NATIONS UNIES

Join us for a special lecture on

LEADERSHIP AND FOREIGN POLICY

Presented by:

Master of Arts in International Administration (MAIA) program

Miami International Relations Association (MIRA)

Interdisciplinary and Professional Graduate Student Organization

Ambassador
Liliana Ayalde

NOVEMBER 16TH 6PM

RSVP: <https://bit.ly/AyaldeLecture>

Liliana Ayalde is the former U.S. Ambassador to Brazil and Paraguay, and retired after a 38-year distinguished career in the foreign service. She also served as Civilian Deputy to the Commander and foreign policy advisor at the United States Southern Command (SOUTHCOM), as Assistant Secretary for Central America, Caribbean and Cuba at the Department of State, and the Deputy Assistant Administrator for the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). Ambassador Ayalde earned her BA from American University and MPH from Tulane University. She currently serves as a senior adviser for the Americas with the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) and is a member of several foreign policy and development organizations focusing on matters related to Latin America and the Caribbean.

For more information
please contact ipsoffice@miami.edu
or call 305-284-8783

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI
COLLEGE of ARTS & SCIENCES

